

EUROJUST

Vacancy notice to establish the reserve list for:

Senior Analyst (strategic/operational)
Reference: 12/EJ/15
Temporary agent – AD 8
M/F

Applicants are invited to apply for the post of Senior Analyst.

EUROJUST is a European Union body established in 2002 (Council Decision 2002/187/JHA of 28 February 2002 on the setting up of EUROJUST, amended by Council Decision 2003/659/JHA of 18 June 2003 and by Council Decision 2009/426/JHA of 16 December 2008 on the strengthening of Eurojust) to enhance the effectiveness of the competent authorities within Member States dealing with serious cross-border and organised crime.

The College of EUROJUST is composed of 27 National Members, one nominated by each EU Member State. The College elects one of the National Members to be its President. The Administrative Director is responsible, under the supervision of the President, for the day-to-day administration of Eurojust and staff management.

For further information, please consult our website: www.eurojust.europa.eu

The Case Analysis Unit (CAU), made up of analysts and assistants, supports the judicial cooperation and coordination role of Eurojust.

The mission of the Unit is to facilitate the judicial cooperation and coordination role of Eurojust by providing operational and case-related analysis, and in doing so enhancing, managing and exchanging strategic knowledge to support Eurojust in its role as a centre of expertise.

The Senior Analyst will coordinate, conduct, and ensure quality of complex case-related analysis and contribute to the strategic development of case-related infrastructures.

There are two main areas to which the Senior Analyst may be assigned:

- Strategic analysis which is carried out in the areas of serious and organised crime within the mandate of Eurojust in order to obtain an overview of trends or developments; and
- Casework-related/operational and judicial analysis, which focuses on specific cases and varies according to the different operational purposes.

To build a team-oriented approach and broaden its staff's expertise, the CAU can require that work/tasks between the two areas (strategic and operational) are shared to allow staff to gain more insight into the Unit's objectives.

The Senior Analyst will report to the Head of Case Analysis Unit at Eurojust.

Eurojust is undergoing an organisational structure review; depending on its outcome, the job's scope of accountabilities may be revised.

1. Key accountabilities

The successful applicant will be responsible for:

- Conducting complex analysis of casework information at strategic and/or operational level;
- Supervising and coordinating specialised research, notes, statistics and other inputs on relevant topics in view of strategic/tactical meetings and projects;
- Contributing to planning, organisation and conduct of operational and strategic meetings organised by Eurojust, e.g. suggesting operational options based on analysis of relevant documentation;
- Based on the analysis of case-related (legal) issues, detect recurrent problems in relation to mutual legal assistance and identify possible good practices;
- Ensuring that case-related quality standards are applied and promote compliance with provisions concerning the processing of data;
- Supporting the College and National Desks by facilitating and gathering the exchange of case-related information together with information from other relevant sources and on providing statistics and reports containing case-related/strategic and legal analysis;
- Reporting case-related information relevant to Eurojust's management and the College and stimulating action;
- Identifying and developing relevant methods of performance measurement (i.e. KPIs) and best practises to improve existing processes and share innovations;
- Developing, implementing, updating and integrating case analysis plans, policies, systems, procedures and guidelines;
- Provide strategic input as senior user in projects aimed at developing data processing tools infrastructures, in particular related to the Case Management System (CMS);
- Providing supervision, leadership and guidance to assigned staff;
- Participate in interdepartmental working groups/projects and inter-institutional/agencies meetings;
- Liaise and consult with senior counterparts at other institutions/agencies, such as Europol and OLAF, on case-related issues and strategic areas of cooperation in order to promote communication and a complementary approach to common fields of action;
- Coordinating, managing and monitoring the implementation of projects related to his/her areas of responsibility;
- Deputising the Head of Unit or/and any other staff as appropriate; and
- Carrying out any other duties required in the interests of the Unit.

- Highly-developed planning, organisation and coordination skills.

Applicants are requested, when sending their applications, to provide concrete examples of how their knowledge, experience, skills and abilities meet the requirements of the position. This information should be provided under point 9 on the application form, titled "Motivation".

3. Selection phase

A Selection Board is nominated by the Appointing Authority. The Human Resources Unit assists the Selection Board by checking the fulfilment of all formal requirements and eligibility criteria. The responsibility for any decision made during this exercise lies with the Selection Board. Failure to comply with one of the formal requirements or eligibility criteria will result in a disqualification of the applicant concerned.

The Selection Board then makes the decision on who is to be considered an eligible applicant for the selection process, in accordance with the requirements outlined in the vacancy notice, and decides from among the eligible applicants those who are to be invited to attend an interview. Candidates invited for an interview may be asked to undergo a written test. Shortlisted candidates may be required to undergo an assessment through an external centre, where specific competences and soft skills related to the position are assessed.

The selection phase consists of an interview with the Selection Board, in order to evaluate the capacities of the candidates to perform the key accountabilities mentioned above. During the interview, special attention will be paid to the specific knowledge required for the post and the suitability and capacity of the candidate to adapt to a multicultural environment. The work of the Selection Board ends with the drawing up of a list of applicants suitable and a list of applicants unsuitable to occupy the position advertised.

Reserve list

The list of suitable applicants is submitted to the Appointing Authority, who decides on the appointment of the successful candidate and the establishment of a reserve list for the post advertised. Candidates should note that inclusion on the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment.

Recruitment will be based on availability of posts and budget.

The reserve list may be used by other units or services in order to fulfil the same or similar positions within Eurojust.

The reserve list for this post will be valid until 31 December 2013 and may be extended at the discretion of the Appointing Authority of Eurojust.

4. Contractual conditions

The Appointing Authority will appoint the successful candidate as a member of the temporary staff pursuant to Article 2(a) of the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities, to which he/she will be subject, for a period of 5 years. The contract may be renewed.

Remuneration will be based on the Community scale of salaries. Pay is subject to Community tax and other deductions laid down in the Staff Regulations. Remuneration is, however, exempt from any national taxation.

The grade for this position is AD8. The basic monthly salary of a temporary agent in the first step at AD8 level, before any deductions or allowances, is approximately EUR 6,299.

The place of employment will be The Hague, where Eurojust has its official seat.

Prior to contract signature, the successful candidate will be requested:

- to provide Eurojust with original or certified copies of all relevant documents proving the candidate's eligibility criteria, including an extract from the candidate's police file; and
- to undergo a compulsory medical examination to establish that the candidate meets the standard of physical fitness necessary to perform the duties involved.

For any further information on contractual and working conditions, please refer to the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities and its Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities, which are available on the following web page:

http://ec.europa.eu/dgs/human-resources/publications\_en.htm

Confirmation of appointment

Temporary staff are required to serve a probationary period of six months.

Essential requirement for the selected applicants: Security Clearance

Eurojust requires selected applicants to sensitive posts to undergo a security screening procedure and obtain a positive national opinion. The level of the latter depends on the specific classified data that post-holders deal with. For this post, the required level of clearance is SECRET.

Applicants who currently hold a valid and positive national security screening opinion at the above-mentioned level do not need to obtain a new one. They shall then provide a copy of such opinion to Eurojust and specify the issuing authority, level and date of expiry. In case the temporal validity of the opinion expires within a year, the renewal procedure shall be initiated expeditiously.

In case selected applicants do not currently hold a valid and positive national security screening opinion at the above-mentioned level, Eurojust will require them to sign a pre-screening self-declaration. Eurojust will request such opinion from the National Security Agency of the applicants' state of nationality.

In case such agency issues a negative opinion at the above-mentioned level after the signature of the contract of employment, Eurojust has the right to terminate the latter.

Declaration of commitment to serve public interest independently

The successful candidate will be required to make a declaration of commitment to act independently in the public interest and to make a declaration in relation to interests that might be considered prejudicial to his/her independence.

The successful candidate will be required to carry out his/her duties and conduct him/herself solely with the interests of the Communities in mind; he/she shall neither seek nor take instruction from any government, authority, organisation or person outside his/her institution. He/she shall carry out the duties assigned with objectivity, impartiality and loyalty to the Communities.

Equal opportunity

EUROJUST applies a policy of equal opportunity for men and women and accepts applications without distinction on grounds of sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic characteristics, and language, religious, political or other convictions or opinions, financial situation, disability, age, sexual orientation, marital status or family situation.

5. Submission of applications

Your application must be sent to applications@eurojust.europa.eu by no later than 18 11 2012 at midnight CET.

Please indicate the reference number on the application form, in the heading of your e-mail and in all future correspondence relating to this application.

Candidates must use the E-application form available on the website of Eurojust and must mention the reference number and the title of the post for which they are applying. All the questions on the form must be answered in full. The application form must be completed in English. Eurojust publishes multiple posts at the same time and if the candidate wishes to apply for more than one post, he/she must submit a separate application form for each post.

Should applicants be invited for an interview, in order for the application to be considered complete, they must bring with them on the day of the interview originals or certified photocopies of all the supporting documents for their educational qualifications and employment (diplomas, certificates, statements of employment, professional references, etc.) and photocopies of these documents necessary to prove that they fulfil the eligibility criteria. All documentary evidence of professional experience must indicate both start and end dates of previous positions and the start date of the position held currently.

Eurojust has the right to disqualify applicants who fail to submit all the required documents on the date of the interview.

Please note that any documents submitted will not be returned to the candidates.

Application forms sent by fax or by post will not be accepted, except for candidates who have a proven disability that prevents them from applying via e-mail. These candidates may submit by post, no later than the indicated closing date for the submission of applications (the postmark date will serve as proof), a printed version of the application form, and mail it indicating the reference number of the selection procedure and title of the post to: EUROJUST, Recruitment Office, P.O. Box 16183, 2500 BD The Hague, The Netherlands.

Closing Date: Closing dates for the submission of applications are strictly adhered to. Your application must be sent to applications@eurojust.europa.eu by 18 11 2012 at midnight CET. In the heading of the e-mail, the reference number of the post and the title of the post for which a candidate is applying must be mentioned.

To summarise:

The application form must be fully completed in English. Applications must be sent to applications@eurojust.europa.eu no later than the indicated closing date, mentioning the reference number and the vacancy and title of the position in the header of the e-mail.

The Human Resources Unit will acknowledge receipt of applications. Due to the volume of applications, only candidates selected for the interviews will be contacted further. Candidates are invited to follow the recruitment process status on the Eurojust website.

Please note that the Selection Board's work and deliberations are strictly confidential and that any contact, direct or indirect, with its members is strictly forbidden.

All personal data collected for any selection procedure to be handled by Eurojust will only be used for its purposes and will in no case be transmitted to any third party. Any data provided will be treated in the strictest confidence and with high standards of security. All documents provided to Eurojust during any selection procedure will be kept in Eurojust's files and will not be returned to applicants. Applicants' documents will only be kept for as long as it is mandatory to fulfil the requirements of existing auditing/control procedures applicable to Eurojust. The Head of the HR Unit of Eurojust acts as controller of such data, which will be collected and further processed in full compliance with all applicable data protection regulations and, in particular, with the rules on the protection and processing of personal data at Eurojust (OJ C 68/1, 19.3.2005). The rights of information, access, correction, blocking and deletion of personal data are guaranteed under these rules.
