

EUROJUST

Eurojust is organising the following selection procedure with a view to drawing up a reserve list for

Senior Project Manager
Reference: 09/EJ/CA/59
Contract Agent - FG IV
M/F

Applicants are invited to apply for the vacant post of Senior Project Manager.

EUROJUST is a European Union body established in 2002 (Council Decision 2002/187/JHA of 28 February 2002 on the setting up of EUROJUST, last amended by the Council Decision 2003/659/JHA of 18 June 2003) to enhance the effectiveness of the competent authorities within Member States dealing with serious cross-border and organised crime.

The College of EUROJUST is composed of 27 National Members, one nominated by each EU Member State. The College elects one of the National Members to be its President. The Administrative Director is responsible, under the supervision of the President, for the day-to-day administration of Eurojust and staff management.

For further information, please consult our website: www.eurojust.europa.eu

Eurojust is searching for a Senior Project Manager at management level who can participate in the development and building process of the new headquarters on behalf of Eurojust. The Dutch Governmental Building Agency will act as developer and principal for all involved parties. Eurojust will participate in the process as end user.

1. Key accountabilities

The successful applicant will be responsible for:

Internal Matters

- Monitoring the development and processes, with all parties involved, to deliver a product according to Eurojust's demands and requirements as an end user (budget goals, constraints, planning, objectives, quality, risks) on behalf of Eurojust;
- Managing Eurojust's internal project organisation;
- Managing the development of project teams to ensure that project tasks are in line with overall program objectives (budget goals, constraints, planning, objectives, quality, risks), conveying and building expert knowledge in our projects;

- Motivating team members and helping to determine new, creative ways to employ teams on projects and distribute responsibilities;

Reporting

- Functioning as the central and responsible Eurojust representative to all parties involved in the building process, confronting issues openly and quickly;
- Providing regular status reports of the project for the Eurojust management containing: budget progress report, quality, risks and problems, measures and required expertise;
- Raising the visibility of Eurojust through involvement in local industry organisations;
- Effectively communicating relevant project/practice information and providing progress reports to superiors and peers in other practices and within Eurojust (management and units involved in status of the project);

External Matters

- Managing the day-to-day operational and tactical aspects, client interaction and expectations of multiple or large-scale projects;
- Anticipating client needs and proposing alternative business solutions;
- Continually seeking and capitalising upon opportunities to increase customer satisfaction and deepen client relationships;
- Synchronising the requirements of Eurojust with those of other involved parties, e.g. municipality, Ministry of Justice, assessing conflicts and initiating problem-solving processes;

Project Itself

- Adjusting and managing project-related processes to building project and vice versa (transition, purchase and installation of elements under the responsibility of Eurojust);
- Defining project constraints and managing to achieve high deliverables set for this project (budget, quality, planning, information, mandate project organisation/management);
- Implementing engagement review and quality assurance procedures, minimising the exposure and mitigating risk across the project;
- Setting up verification processes for preliminary design, final design, tender document, etc.;
- Accurately forecasting budget margins, bill rates and utilisation across projects. Determining appropriate revenue recognition, ensuring accurate invoicing and monitoring receivables for all projects under his/her direction;
- Integrating financial data for multiple projects, analysing profitability, revenue, margins, bill rates and utilisation;
- Addressing billing issues when they arise;
- Pursuing excellence in all aspects of business;

2. Qualifications and experience required

a- Eligibility criteria

Candidates will be considered for the selection phase on the basis of the following criteria to be fulfilled by the closing date for applications:

- A level education that corresponds to completed university studies of at least 3 years attested by a diploma;
- Thorough knowledge of one of the languages of the Communities and a satisfactory knowledge of another language of the Communities to the extent necessary for the performance of his/her duties.

Furthermore, in order to be eligible, a candidate must:

- Be a national of one of the Member States of the Communities;
- Enjoy his/her full rights as a citizen;
- Have fulfilled any obligations imposed on him/her by the laws on military service;
- Meet the character requirements for the duties involved;
- Be physically fit to perform his/her duties.

b- Selection criteria

Candidates selected on the basis of the above eligibility criteria will then be evaluated according to the following selection criteria:

Essential

- Experience and knowledge in the areas mentioned above under "key accountabilities";
- At least 10 years of proven appropriate professional experience related to this position;
- Proficiency in Prince2® or equivalent project/programme training at management level;
- Extensive knowledge of (new) housing processes and related political processes within international governmental organisations when a new building/premises is acquired;
- Specific knowledge of Dutch building regulations (Bouwbesluit);
- Excellent communication skills;
- Good oral and written skills in English, English being the vehicular language of Eurojust;
- Good oral and written skills in Dutch, as the Senior Project Officer will be responsible for contacts with the Dutch local authorities;
- Ability to work both independently and as part of a multicultural team;
- Well-developed interpersonal skills;
- Good leadership and coordinating skills;
- Excellent organisation and time management skills;
- Proactive ability to solve sophisticated problems efficiently;

- Awareness of today's construction costs and (building-related) security and safety provisions/measures.

Advantageous

The following characteristic will be considered as an additional asset:

- Experience in public administration.

3. Selection phase

A Selection Board is nominated by the Appointing Authority. The Human Resources Unit assists the Selection Board by checking the fulfilment of all formal requirements and eligibility criteria. The responsibility for any decision made during this exercise lies with the Selection Board. Failure to comply with one of the formal requirements or eligibility criteria will result in a disqualification of the applicant concerned.

The Selection Board then makes the decision on who is to be considered an eligible applicant for the selection process, in accordance with the requirements outlined in the vacancy notice, and decides from among the eligible applicants those who are to be invited to attend an interview. Candidates invited for an interview may be asked to undergo a written test.

The selection phase consists of an interview with the Selection Board, in order to evaluate the capacities of the candidates to perform the key accountabilities mentioned above. During the interview special attention will be paid to the specific knowledge required for the current post and the suitability and capacity of the candidate to adapt to a multicultural environment. Candidates may be asked to undergo a written test; should this be the case candidates will be informed in advance. The work of the Selection Board ends with the drawing up of a list (in alphabetical order) of applicants suitable and a list of applicants unsuitable to occupy the position advertised.

Reserve list

The list of suitable and unsuitable applicants is submitted to the Appointing Authority who decides on the appointment of the successful candidate(s) and the establishment of a reserve list for the post advertised. Candidates should note that inclusion on the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment. Recruitment will be based on availability of posts and budget.

The reserve list may be used by other units or services in order to fulfil the same or similar positions within Eurojust.

The reserve list for this post will be valid until 31 December 2009 and may be extended at the discretion of the Appointing Authority of Eurojust.

4. Contractual conditions

The Appointing Authority will appoint the successful candidate(s) as (a) member(s) of the temporary staff pursuant to Article 2(a) of the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities, to which he/she will be subject, for a period of 4 years. The contract may be renewed.

Remuneration will be based on the Community scale of salaries. Pay is subject to Community tax and other deductions laid down in the Staff Regulations. Remuneration is, however, exempt from any national taxation.

The grade for this position is: FG IV. The basic monthly salary of a contract agent in the first step at FG IV grade 13 (i.e. professional experience of up to 7 years) is approximately EUR 3030; in the first step at FG IV grade 14 (i.e. professional experience of more than 7 years), the basic monthly salary is approximately EUR 3420; and in the first step at FG IV grade 16 (i.e. professional experience of more than 20 years), the basic monthly salary is approximately EUR 4380, before any deductions or allowances.

The place of employment will be The Hague, where Eurojust has its official seat.

Prior to contract signature, the successful candidate will be requested:

- to provide Eurojust with original or certified copies of all relevant documents proving the candidate's eligibility criteria, including an extract from the candidates police file; and
- to undergo a compulsory medical examination to establish that the candidate meets the standard of physical fitness necessary to perform the duties involved.

For any further information on contractual and working conditions, please refer to the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities and its Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities, which is available on the following web page:

http://ec.europa.eu/dgs/personnel_administration/statut/tocen100.pdf

Confirmation of appointment and security clearance

Contract staff are required to serve a probationary period of nine months. Successful applicants may be required to undergo a security vetting and clearance procedure.

Declaration of commitment to serve public interest independently

The successful candidate will be required to make a declaration of commitment to act independently in the public interest and to make a declaration in relation to interests that might be considered prejudicial to his/her independence.

The successful candidate will be required to carry out his/her duties and conduct him/herself solely with the interests of the Communities in mind; he/she shall neither seek nor take instruction from any government, authority, organisation or person outside his/her institution. He/she shall carry out the duties assigned with objectivity, impartially and loyalty to the Communities.

Equal opportunity

EUROJUST applies a policy of equal opportunity for men and women and accepts applications without distinction on grounds of sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic characteristics, and language, religious, political or other convictions or opinions, financial situation, disability, age, sexual orientation, marital status or family situation.

5. Submission of applications

Your E-application must arrive at the following e-mail address: applications@eurojust.europa.eu by 20 May 2009 at midnight CET.

Please indicate the reference number on the application form, in the heading of your email and in all future correspondence relating to this application.

Candidates must use the E-application form available on the website of Eurojust and must mention the reference number and the title of the post for which they are applying. All the questions on the form must be completed in full (whether or not the candidate decides to attach personal curriculum vitae). A separate "eligibility and selection criteria grid" available on the website of Eurojust must be returned in respect of each vacancy for which you apply.

The candidate should apply by filling in the E-application form which is available on the website of Eurojust. The E-application must be completed in English and in any one of the other 22 official EU languages¹. The E-application is available on the website of Eurojust in all 23 official EU languages. Eurojust publishes posts in parallel and if the candidate wishes to apply for more than one post, he/she must submit a separate E-application form for each post.

At the second stage, should applicants be invited for an interview, in order for the application to be considered complete, they must bring with them on the day of the interview photocopies of all the supporting documents (diplomas, certificates, professional references, etc.) necessary to prove that they satisfy all eligibility criteria. All documentary evidence of professional experience must indicate start and end dates of previous positions and the start date and continuity of the current position held.

Candidates who fail to submit all the documents specified on the date of the interview will be disqualified.

Please note that any documents submitted will not be returned to the candidates.

Application forms sent by fax or by postal mail will not be accepted, except for candidates who have a proven disability that prevents them from applying via E-application. These candidates may submit by postal mail, no later than the indicated closing date for the submission of applications (the postmark date will serve as proof), a printed version of the E-application form, and mail it with reference number of the selection procedure and title of the post to EUROJUST, Recruitment Office, P.O. Box 16183, 2500 BD The Hague, The Netherlands.

Closing Date: Closing dates for the submission of applications are strictly adhered to. Your E-application must arrive at the following e-mail address applications@eurojust.europa.eu by 20 May 2009 at midnight CET. In the
