

Eurojust's cooperation agreements

A one-stop shop for international judicial contacts

“ The aim is simple: we want to make the lives of organised crime groups more difficult by exchanging information and evidence faster. The agreement will strengthen cooperation and mutual trust between Albania and its EU partners, contributing to Albania's European perspective. ”

Věra Jourová, European Commissioner for Justice, Consumers and Gender Equality, on the occasion of the signature of the cooperation agreement between Albania and Eurojust in October 2018 in Tirana, Albania
