

Fact sheet

Statistics on Eurojust cases on terrorism 2014 - 2018 (15 June)

I. Number of cases on terrorism

II. Requesting Countries

The National Desk of Italy has registered the largest number of terrorism cases at Eurojust in the reporting period (43), followed by Spain (34) and Germany (29). The following chart shows the number of cases open in the referred period by each Desk.

III. Requested Countries

The Member States most often requested in terrorism cases registered at Eurojust are Germany (90 cases), Belgium (78 cases) and France (73 cases). The chart below shows the number of times each Member State was requested in this type of case.

IV. Third States

The third States most often involved in terrorism cases registered at Eurojust were Switzerland and the USA (19 cases each) and Norway (18 cases).

The chart below shows the third States most frequently involved in this type of case.

V. Coordination meetings and coordination centres

In the reference period, Eurojust held a total of 57 coordination meetings (CMs) discussing terrorism and 2 coordination centres (CCs). The following chart shows the number of CMs and CCs per year.

VI. Organising Member States

The following chart shows the Member States that organised coordination meetings in the reference period.

VII. Participating Member States

The following chart illustrates the Member States that have participated in coordination meetings in the reference period.

VIII. Third States involved in coordination meetings

The following chart shows the third States involved in coordination meetings in the reference period.

IX. JITS

In the reference period, 14 joint investigation teams (JITs) have been formed related to Eurojust cases on terrorism. The chart below shows the number of relevant JITs signed per year.

No new JITs have yet been signed in 2018.

X. Third States involved in JITs

The third States involved in JITs in the reference period were: Ukraine (2), Australia, Malaysia and Switzerland (1 each).

XI. Enhanced coordination: Use of CMs and JITs in Eurojust cases on terrorism

