

National Jurisprudence summary

Scania and Blekinge Court of Appeal (Sweden), Appealed Decision 11 April 2017, case number B 3187-16 (War Crime)

The defendant was convicted for having subjected the corpse of dead persons to humiliating and degrading treatment that was intended to seriously violate their personal dignity. Photos present posing next to the severed heads of dead enemy soldiers. First and appeal decision, resulting in prison sentence of an Iraqi national for having committed a war crime.