Agreements on cooperation provide the possibility of exchanging operational information, including evidence and personal data, between Eurojust and the national authorities of the country involved in a systematic way.

Eurojust can rely on agreements on cooperation concluded with 13 non-EU countries: Albania, Georgia, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Moldova, Montenegro, North Macedonia, Norway, Serbia, Switzerland, Ukraine, the United Kingdom and the United States.

Liaison Prosecutors from countries outside the EU are posted at Eurojust. They work side by side with their colleagues from the Member States to provide support in cross-border investigations involving their country.

Currently, twelve Liaison Prosecutors are seconded to Eurojust, from Albania, Georgia, Iceland, Moldova, Montenegro, North Macedonia, Norway, Serbia, Switzerland, Ukraine, the United Kingdom and the United States.

Eurojust concludes working arrangements with third countries and judicial networks and associations established outside of the EU to enable strategic cooperation in combatting serious crime.

These arrangements allow exchanging strategic information and sharing best practices, but are not a basis to share operational personal data.

Eurojust has working arrangements with the Ibero-American Association of Public Prosecutors Offices (AIAMP), Nigeria, Panama, Costa Rica, Bolivia, Chile, Ecuador and Peru.
