2 March 2022: Just six days after the outbreak of full-scale war, Eurojust organises a coordination meeting at the request of the Lithuanian, Polish and Ukrainian national authorities to discuss the prosecution of alleged core international crimes committed in Ukraine.

25 March 2022: A JIT agreement is signed between the three national authorities, supported by Eurojust and the JITs Network Secretariat. Up until March 2024, Eurojust hosts more than 20 coordination meetings of the JIT and other national authorities that are investigating alleged core international crimes committed in Ukraine. Prosecutors and investigators from 26 EU Member States and 10 third countries participate to map out the best strategy for the investigation.

25 April 2022: In its first-ever participation in a JIT, the Office of the Prosecutor at the International Criminal Court joins as a participant. The JITs Network Secretariat is pivotal in facilitating the cooperation of the ICC, which enables rapid and real-time coordination with the JIT partner countries in connection with investigations conducted by the ICC and competent national authorities.

30 May 2022: Estonia, Latvia and Slovakia join the JIT.

13 October 2022: Romania joins as the JIT's latest member.

2 February 2023: European Commission President Ursula von der Leyen announces the establishment of an International Centre for the Prosecution of the Crime of Aggression against Ukraine (ICPA), to be based at Eurojust.

23 February 2023: The Core International Crimes Evidence Database (CICED) starts operations at Eurojust.

3 March 2023: The JIT's seven national authorities sign a Memorandum of Understanding with the United States Department of Justice to enhance coordination between their respective investigations into the war in Ukraine.

7 March 2023: During the United for Justice Conference in Lviv, the JIT's seven partner countries agree to amend the JIT agreement to reflect the future role of the ICPA.

13-14 April 2023: During a coordination meeting in Vilnius, the JIT members agree to extend the JIT agreement to include alleged crimes of genocide. The JIT also welcomes the US Department of Justice's pledge to second a prosecutor to the ICPA.

3 July 2023: Marking a historic moment, the ICPA begins operations at Eurojust. During the launch event, the ICPA is inaugurated by Eurojust's President Ladislav Hamran, European Commissioner Didier Reynders, Prosecutor General of Ukraine Andriy Kostin, ICC Prosecutor Karim A.A. Khan, Assistant Attorney General Kenneth A. Polite and Justice Minister of the Netherlands, Ms. Dilan Yeşilgöz-Zegerius. A contribution agreement with the European Commission's Service Foreign Policy Instruments is signed, and the Centre's first meeting takes place.

10 October 2023: Europol becomes a JIT participant.

15 November 2023: Eurojust welcomes US financial support to the ICPA to be administered through the European Commission's Service for Foreign Policy Instruments.

29 February 2024: JIT members agree to prolong the JIT until 25 March 2026.